

CNH Capital introduces 'Mission Education' to support Underprivileged Children

As part of the program CNH Capital will support 240 children studying at NeeV, in Nanqli Umarpur village, Gurugram, with access to quality education.

CNH Capital, the financial services division of CNH has launched its CSR Project: 'Mission Education', focusing on enhancing the educational experience and improving learning outcomes of schoolchildren in Nanqli Umarpur village, in Gurugram. As part of this initiative, the project will support 240 children studying in primary up to fifth standard.

Mission Education, in collaboration with the Smile Foundation, will support NeeV - village learning centre - pupils. The initiative will source teaching materials and set up a Foundational Literacy and Numeracy Lab. It will also focus on sanitation and hygiene education, skills development opportunities for teachers and project staff, and provide networking opportunities for the children and other stakeholders.
