

Schwing Stetter India wins Infrastructure Icon Award at the “Navabharat Infrastructure Conclave & Awards 2018”

Schwing Stetter India, one of India's leading concrete equipment manufacturers were the proud recipient of the Infrastructure Icon Award at the recently conducted “Navabharat Infrastructure Conclave & Awards 2018”. The award event which was held at Vivanta by Taj President, Colaba, Mumbai saw the participation of top industry leaders from various manufacturing companies and institutions.

Mr. Anand Sundaresan, Vice Chairman & MD, Schwing Stetter India and Mr. V. G. Sakthikumar, Managing Director, Schwing Stetter Sales and Service Private Limited received the award from Shri. Nitin Gadkari, Union Cabinet Minister for Road Transport & Highways, Shipping and Water Resources, River Development & Ganga Rejuvenation in appreciation of Schwing Stetter India's contribution in the construction equipment manufacturing space. The conclave threw light on various aspects of infrastructure ranging from the current scenario to development and future of it.

Close to 20 finalists were chosen based on key criteria that included global operations, market share, number of years of operation and professional management acumen. Schwing Stetter satisfied all the above criteria in their respective category and won the award.

On receiving the award Mr. Anand Sundaresan, Vice Chairman & MD, Schwing Stetter India said, “We are delighted to win the prestigious Infrastructure Icon Award. It is very encouraging to receive due acknowledgements for our commitment to provide the best construction equipment solutions. This award is a testimony to Schwing Stetter's expertise in the field and the unwavering support of our team” to the industry.

On receiving the award Mr. V. G. Sakthikumar, Managing Director, Schwing Stetter Sales and Service Private Limited said, “We appreciate Navabharat times for their initiative to recognize Infrastructure icons in various fields. It's a proud moment to receive such an award. I dedicate this award to every employee of Schwing Stetter India who are working tirelessly towards the pursuit of a common goal.”

About Schwing Stetter India Pvt Ltd:

Incorporated in June 1998, and commencing its manufacturing operations in 1999, Schwing Stetter India is a 100% subsidiary of Schwing

GmbH, a 1 billion USD German Concrete machinery manufacturer and a part of Xcmg group. Schwing Stetter is a pioneer in manufacturing equipment for concrete preparation, placement, transportation and recycling. Schwing Stetter (India) Private Limited manufactures concrete batching plants, concrete mixers for transporting readymade concrete to construction sites, concrete pumps, concrete placing booms, tower cranes, self-loading mixers and concrete recycling plants. They cater to the requirement of infrastructure developers and also act as an OEM supplier to various cement companies who offer ready mix concrete. Schwing Stetter has its manufacturing units in 11 countries including Germany, Austria, USA, Brazil, Russia, China, Ostrava, India supported by sales and service centers in France, Netherlands, Austria and Sweden as well as representations in more than 145 countries worldwide.

(<http://www.schwingstetterindia.com/Product-Enquiry>)

For further details, please contact:

Sisy Augustine, Schwing Stetter India
sisy.augustine@schwingstetterindia.com/ 09884679074
Nina Justin, 20:20 MSL
nina.justin@2020msl.com/ 08056126560
Mohammad Sulaiman, 20:20 MSL
mohammed.sulaiman@2020msl.com/ 09710055505